Southern men who accept invitations to dine with the president hereafter may take the precaution to find out semething about the color scheme of the occasion before accepting.

Instead of trying to wipe out the Mason and Dixon line, as was predicted he would, President Romevelt appears to have engaged in the hopeless undertaking of trying to wise out the color line.

Every negro in the south will feel a shade whiter, now that one of their own color has had the privilege of eating at the same table with the president's family. The southern race problem can never be settled so long as men like Mr. Roosevelt persists in adding fuel to the flame.

The man who can hardly crawl, and has just strength to get through a day's work, has no strength left for family life. He wants to be quiet; to be alone, out of sight and sound of everybody. What a difference between such a man and the healthy, hearty man, who romps with his children and rides his laughing baby to "Banbury Cross." What makes the difference? Usually disease of the stomach, involving the entire digestive and nutritive system.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. When these diseases are cured the hindrance to the proper nourishment of the body is removed and strength comes back again. "I am happy to say I am getting to feel fine."
writes Mr. A. I. Vanderwater, of St. West.
Division Street, Chicago, Ill. "In all I have taken six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and four or five vials of the little 'Pellets.' They have done me worlds of good. These medicines have brought the great change in me from a slow mope of a man that could hardly crawl, tired and sick all the time, and could do no work. Now I can work, sleep, eat, and feel fine, and that tired feeling is all going away. I am very thankful that I wrote to Dr. Pierce. His 'Golden Medical Discovery' and his little liver 'Pellets' have almost made a new man of me. I feel young as I did at thirty years. No

ROOSEVELT'S BAD BLUNDER.

Had President Roosevelt made a tour of the southern states a fortnight ago there would have been much ado made of him. No man would have been so triumphantly received. Committees in every city, town and hamlet would have been appointed to see that proper honors were shown him; eulogistic orations would have been made about him and his noble southern ancestry. He would have been welcomed with flying flags, waving handkerebiefs, patriotic music from brass bands, and the beautiful, It has taken Admiral Schley a trifle lovely women of the south would have strewn flowers along his path-

Were he to visit the south to-day no respectable newspaper would make notice of his coming. No committees would be appointed to receive him except negro politicians and a few office seeking white men, but no white men of social distinction nor standing, with here and there, perhaps, a few solitary tuckian wants in the democratic party exceptions, would participate in his welcome. The white people of the south would show him no indignities. but would treat him with frigid indifference, and during his visit would seek the seclusion of their homes.

> Come weal, come woe, the white people of the south must preserve unsullied and untarnished, without spot or blemish, the traditions, the grandeur and purity of their race, despite the carping critics of the world.

We owe this much to our women our country, and our God!

Infinite wisdom and justice, for purposes we do not comprehend nor understand, made these racial distinctions and they should stand as God has

The example of Mr. Roosevelt, al-While Captain Howell was about it though holding the high office be does, cannot make any inroads on the social color line in the south.

To attempt it were worse than folly, and all attempts in that direction make it far more hurtful to the colored thus to the white race.

When the white people of the south contemplate the degenerate condition of the amalgamated races in Mexico, South America, Cuba, Portor Rico, and other West India islands, they feel justified in the wisdom of their conduct, not withstanding its apparent severity, and are more and more convinced it is the true and proper course to pursue and in so doing the south feels justified of God and her own conscience.

On this subject the south is a unit, and in a matter that concerns her so vitally she should be allowed to hold to her own opinions and pursue her own policy, as she is convinced, after the most thoughtful, religious and intellectual study of the subject in all its bearings, that her way is the best way and upon its rigid adherence depend the preservation, elevation and purity of both races.

Whom God hath put asunder let no man join together!

Let the racial distinctions and colors God has created remain forever as he has created them, each race working out its own destiny and its own salvation in the light and according to the inspiration He has given them.

In irritating the south he has lessened immeusely his power for good to the country. He has set an example which will have a bad effect upon that class of negroes who endeavor to force themselves into social relations with white persons that the latter will not tolerate. Every attempt to do that has invariably cost the negro dearly and will ever do so.

The two races can progress peacefully and prosperously together only as the necroes recognize that there are social barriers set up by the whites which they can never animount.

When the president work to his family board one of their cace he kindled in the heart of thousands of negroes a desire for social recognition of a simi-

These are perroes who are making real progress and who enjoy the esteem and receive the cordial assistance of the race that controls and ever will control this country.

It is especially unfortunate that the negro who has been most conspicuous and most useful in setting his race on this prosperous line of conduct should have been made a participant in an incodent that will lessen the wholesome effects of his teachings.

President Rossevelt has blundered dundered without excuse, and in common with the people of the south we deeply deplore the fact that he has dome so. We have spoken mainly of the effect of this ill-considered act of his on the south, but it will extend throughout the country, for as observation proves, and as their own social regulations demonstrate every day, the people of every other part of the country with few exceptions draw the social color line and will not permit the negro to step over it.

They, with the south, will regret and condemn President Rosevelt for
